➤ CONTENU ET OBJECTIFS PÉDAGOGIQUES DU COURS DESCRIPTION AND LEARNING OBJECTIVES OF THE COURSE

This course shows students how to optimally make various corporate financial decisions, such as those pertaining to investment, financing, and working capital management, with a view to achieving a set of given corporate objectives.

Besides, the world economy being highly globalized and integrated, the course discusses the recent global financial crises, overviews the international monetary system, and examines international financial markets and their implications for the financial management of the multinational firm.

Students will learn to analyze topics such as dealings and functioning of the foreign exchange market, international parity conditions, main currency instruments, and the management of foreign exchange exposure.
